SECTION E SHOW HORSE CLASSES (unofficial)

Sunday 12 November 2023

9.30am Start

Chief Steward: Christine Bellette

Announcer: Melita Gard

Judge: Di Wazny

Steward: Peter Gard

Di Wazny, Wynton Riding Ponies

“My involvement with horses began at a very early age & I would spend my weekends happily riding all over the countryside.

I was besotted with English Riding Ponies from the moment they were imported into Australia & I was fortunate enough to purchase a Rotherwood Acrobat colt & a Rotherwood Commander filly. The Acrobat gelding Dark Meridian went on to be a multi Supreme winner including Champion Galloway at Hobart Royal.

The mare Melac Gaynor became my foundation mare & produced some wonderful youngstock under my Prefix Wynton Riding Ponies. The combination of the Rotherwood lines crossed with some of Australia’s best Arab & TB lines produced many Multi Supreme winning ponies both here in Tasmania & in many Mainland states.

I was an EA & SHC Judge for many years – Although these days I am heavily involved in my other passion – Showing & breeding Italian Greyhounds I still like to take an interest in the Show Horse Scene in Tasmania.”

Horses may enter in either Show Horse or Show Hunter but not both. Class 30 “Beyond The Barrier” and Class 31 “Beyond The Sulky” open to both Show Horses and Show Hunters.

Sandra Southwell

Sandra was born into a horsey family and spent her childhood attending pony club and local shows as well as breaking in and re-educating ponies. As Sandra got older the family would travel the show circuit competing at Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide Royals as well as major agricultural shows.

In about 1974, Sandra with her mother Iris and brother Shane brought a team of show horses to Tasmania. As many people do, they fell in love with our state and decided to move here permanently.

Throughout the 1980’s and 1990’s, Sandra dominated both Hack and Riding classes in Tasmania with horses such as Tarantella, Anna Karenina (Anna K) and the enigmatic Christopher Robin.

Sandra ignited a passion for horses and riding in many children through her residential riding camps. Not a one trick pony, Sandra was also proficient at riding side-saddle, driving harness horses, stock work etc.

Her tragic death in a light plane crash in 2018 was devastating for her many friends and so to honour her contribution to the equestrian community a decision was made to introduce the class “The Sandra Southwell Memorial Lady Rider.”
